

Miller & Rhoads

Mail Orders Filled at Advertised Prices.

Wash Suits, Skirts, Waists, &c.

3 Days' Sale. Special Prices.

This season's styles—and the best values in Washable Ready-to-Wear Garments we've ever offered the first week in June.

Our way of doing business is to give people values at the time they'll be of service—and not wait until merchandise is not desirable at any price.

Read the good news below:

Six different styles Princess and two-piece Shirts and Dresses, in figured lawns, colored dotted Swiss, plain white India linen, and medium weight linen trimmed with lace and lace medallion yoke, the colors are in cadet blue and white, also blue and white, lavender and white, and brown and white dots and figures.

FORMER PRICES AND VALUES TO $7.98, NOW...

$3.15

Tailored Wash Suits, Prince Chap coat and Butterfly styles; tight and semi-tight fitting; solid colors of tan, navy, white, pink and light blue; also stripes of black and white and tan and brown.

SPECIAL VALUE

$4.95

One lot of Soiled Separate Wash Skirts, good quality Belmont cloth, 5 gores, well stitched, nearly all lengths. They've been good values and good sellers at 98c.

TO-DAY

79c

Several hundred Shirts and Skirts, mostly in plain white lawn and lingerie, some with colored figures in lavender, pink and blue.

VALUES AND FORMER PRICES, $1 TO $1.95, NOW...

93c

Wash Petticoats, good quality percale, assorted stripes and colors; made with a wide flounce.

50c VALUE

38c

JUNIOR ORDER BENCH WARRANT

HERE NEXT WEEK FOR HARGRAVE

Two Hundred Members of Insurance Branch Coming—To Urge Death Benefit Increase.

More than 200 members of the Federal Benefit Association of the United States—the insurance branch of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics—from all parts of the country in which the order is represented will meet here in the Young Men's Christian Association hall next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in annual convention, lasting only that day. The delegates will make their headquarters at the Richmond Hotel.

Mr. George H. Harris is president of the association, Mr. G. L. Cadwallader secretary, and Mr. L. R. Smith secretary of the committee on credentials. Some of the most important matters to be considered by the convention are the adjustment of claims and the amendment of laws. A year ago an effort was made to make the death benefit of the members $500 instead of $250, as it has been heretofore. The order is composed of some of the leading men of various communities. There will be no social features, the delegates coming here strictly for work.

Continue Dewald's Case.

The case of Jack Dewald, charged with betrayal of Miss Mary Oertel, was continued in the Police Court yesterday morning until June 11. A number of friends were with the young man in court, and they say they will be able to prove his innocence when the case comes to trial.

All Offices Closed.

Under a proclamation issued by Governor Swanson all the offices at the Capitol and Library buildings were closed yesterday in honor of the one-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis. The offices will open for business at the usual hours this morning.

Returns With Prisoner.

E. B. Whittier, who is charged with passing a worthless check on Mr. James H. Grant, of the Lexington Hotel, was brought back from Lynchburg last night by Detective Sergeant Gibson. He was released on bail.

THE FIRST TASTE

Learned to Drink Coffee When a Baby. If parents realized the fact that coffee contains a drug—caffeine—which is especially harmful to children, they would doubtless hesitate before giving the babies coffee to drink.

"When I was a child in my mother's arms and first began to nibble things at the table, mother used to give me sips of coffee. As my parents used coffee exclusively at meals, I never knew there was anything to drink but coffee and water.

"And so I contrasted the coffee habit early. I remember when quite young the continual use of coffee so affected my parents that they tried roasting wheat and barley, then ground it in the coffee-mill, as a substitute for coffee.

"But it did not taste right, and they went back to coffee again. That was long before Postum was ever heard of. I continued to use coffee until I was 27, and when I got into office work I began to have nervous spells. Especially after breakfast I was so nervous I could scarcely attend to my correspondence.

"At night, after having coffee for supper, I could hardly sleep, and on rising in the morning would feel weak and nervous.

"A friend persuaded me to try Postum. My wife and I did not like it at first, but later when boiled good and strong it was fine. Now we would not give up Postum for the best coffee we ever tasted.

"I can now get good sleep, am free from nervousness and headaches. I recommend Postum to all coffee drinkers.

"There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville" in papers.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

CALL STEVENS IN REBATE CASE

President of Chesapeake and Ohio Summoned by the Federal Grand Jury.

WILL TESTIFY TO-MORROW

Two Witnesses, Not on Stand Before, Examined—May Not Report This Week.

President George W. Stevens, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, was ordered yesterday to appear before the Federal grand jury, which is investigating the rebate cases, this being the one feature of the day's proceedings. The session was brief, and a few minutes after 1 o'clock the foreman reported to Judge Waddill that no conclusions had been reached, and that an adjournment until this morning was desired.

New Witnesses Examined. Only three witnesses were called yesterday. They were B. M. Terrell, agent of the Warrenton Railroad at Warrenton, N. C.; W. M. Anderson, of the traffic bureau of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and J. E. Jones, billing clerk of the Chesapeake and Ohio. It is not known who will be called today, but Mr. Stevens is out of the city, and will not return until to-morrow, when he will appear.

Counselman H. O. Gates was in the court room for the grand jury, and called. It is understood that President Stevens is looked upon as a very important witness, although there is no public intimation of the probable line of his testimony. The final report of the grand jury may not be made to Judge Waddill for at least a week, as the matters under advisement will be investigated with the greatest care. As soon as a report is made, if indictments are found, the cases will be called for trial.

HONOR TO COLONEL CARTER

Military Organizations March in Funeral Time by Residence—Funeral This Morning. During the parade incident to the Davis centennial yesterday, by special order of the chief marshal, Colonel J. Thompson Brown, each of the military organizations marched in at least a week, as the matters under advisement will be investigated with the greatest care. As soon as a report is made, if indictments are found, the cases will be called for trial.

The funeral services of Colonel Carter will take place at All Saints Church at 11 o'clock this morning. The interment will be in Hollywood cemetery. The following will act as pall-bearers: Active—Jonathan Bryan, A. C. Holladay, Allen Potts, Andrew H. Christie, Libanus Myers, and Joseph D. Braxton. Daniel Taylor, Dr. McCall Tompkins, Henry Lee Valentine, Thomas P. Bryan, John W. Atkinson and Robert J. Campbell. Honorary—A. R. Ellerson, Colonel W. Gordon McCabe, Colonel Archer Anderson, Maj. Catesby Jones, Judge George D. Christian, Dr. Christopher Tompkins, Dr. George Ross, Thomas Atkinson, Eppa Henton, Jr., Dr. John S. Wellford, Major Robert W. Hanes, Dr. J. H. Hanes, Jr., Dr. Braxton, Thomas Nelson Page, Rosewell Page, Colonel G. Percy Hayes, C. W. Branch, R. T. Wickham, Colonel W. H. Palmer, R. E. Lee, Jr., Blair Bolling, Prof. Stone, of the University of Virginia, Hon. Joseph E. Wilford and C. C. Pinckney.

The pall-bearers are requested to be at No. 205 West Franklin Street at 10:40 A. M. to-day.

RECEIVED BAD INJURY

Mrs. Holmes Sprains Ankle and Calls on X-Ray Specialist. As the result of an accident, Mrs. George S. Holmes, president of the Davis Monument Association, was unable to take part in the centennial exercises yesterday, having sprained her ankle on Tuesday while shopping in Richmond. Although she slipped and received a severe fall, she proceeded to the home of Lieutenant-Governor Ely, where she was entertained by the ladies. The injury was so severe that it was necessary to have her taken to the X-ray specialist, where it was found that the bone of the ankle was broken.

POTIAUX GETS BOYS

Two Little Negroes Turned Over to Probation Officer. Two little negro boys, Cornelius Oveston and R. H. Hubbard, were before Judge Crutchfield yesterday morning, one on a charge of stealing a horse and buggy for a short drive, and the other for stealing a bicycle from Ed. Ross. Because of their age and size they were turned over to the tender care of Probation Officer Potiaux. He rubbed his hands in perplexity. "What am I going to do with them?" he asked the court.

"Anything you like, after they have been skinned. But don't bring them back to me," replied the court. The officer took them, and uttered a silent prayer as he left the room.

Worked Filmmen.

William Thomas and John Smith, both colored, were arrested in Manchester last night by Captain Lipscomb and Policeman Moore at the request of Detective-Sergeant McMahon, who wants them in Richmond on the charge of filmmaking. The negroes were on their way to Petersburg when captured, and were taken off a Petersburg car.

Girl Bitten by Dog.

Miss Myrtle Turner, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Turner, of No. 409 North Tenth Street, was bitten by a dog yesterday morning, but the injuries are not considered serious. Every precaution was taken to prevent infection, the wound being cauterized. It is not believed that the dog was rabid.

Cocaine Fiend Convicted.

In the Hustings Court yesterday Richard Morris, a negro, pleaded guilty to the charge of selling cocaine and was given two years in the penitentiary.

SHOWS EARNINGS OF MANY ROADS

Clerk of Corporation Commission Gives Intra and Interstate Figures.

GOING MORE INTO DETAIL

Compares Gross Passenger Earnings, Showing Effect of 2-Cent Rate.

Referring to an article in The Times-Dispatch of yesterday, in which it was stated that General Passenger Agent John D. Potts, of the Chesapeake and Ohio, took issue with the statement recently given out by the clerk of the Corporation Commission, indicating that for the eight months extending from July 1, 1907, to February 29, 1908, there was an increase in revenue of $315,015.28, as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year, Mr. Potts, secretary to the commission, said yesterday that the figures were prepared by representatives of the press, and that no statement was given out by the clerk to the commission, unless the fact that reporters had full access to the public records of the commission can be considered as giving out statements.

"In view of the fact," he said, "that certain articles have been published, which include in the comparison the passenger earnings in Virginia for the period July 1st to September 30, 1907, during which period the old rates remained undisturbed, and therefore may be misleading, I give below for the information of the public a statement of gross passenger earnings in Virginia for the six months—October 1, 1907, to March 31, 1908—during which period the 2-cent rate was in effect, as compared with the corresponding months of 1906-1907, during which the 3-cent rate was in effect."

Intra and Interstate Earnings.

The statement showing gross intra, interstate and intrastate passenger earnings is as follows:

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company:	October 1, 1907, to March 31, 1908	$229,981.48
Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company:	October 1, 1907, to March 31, 1908	201,585.04
Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company:	October 1, 1906, to March 31, 1907	27,396.44
Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company:	October 1, 1906, to March 31, 1907	1,163,672.43
Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company:	October 1, 1906, to March 31, 1907	1,255,704.28
Decrease:		$ 92,051.85
New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad Company:	October 1, 1907, to March 31, 1908	$157,857.44
New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad Company:	October 1, 1906, to March 31, 1907	117,882.16
Decrease:		$ 39,975.28
Norfolk and Western Railway Company:	October 1, 1907, to March 31, 1908	$1,244,844.54
Norfolk and Western Railway Company:	October 1, 1906, to March 31, 1907	1,229,487.26
Decrease:		$ 15,357.28
Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company:	October 1, 1907, to March 31, 1908	$373,650.92
Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company:	October 1, 1906, to March 31, 1907	348,441.96
Decrease:		$ 25,208.96
Southern Railway Company:	October 1, 1907, to March 31, 1908	$1,163,672.43
Southern Railway Company:	October 1, 1906, to March 31, 1907	1,255,704.28
Decrease:		$ 92,031.85
Washington-Southern Railway Company:	October 1, 1907, to March 31, 1908	$151,500.67
Washington-Southern Railway Company:	October 1, 1906, to March 31, 1907	110,728.44
Decrease:		$ 40,772.23

KILLED BY TRAIN

Body of Unknown Negro Found on R. F. and P. Track Near Acca.

The body of an unknown colored man was found lying on the tracks of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad near Acca yesterday morning. His skull was fractured, and the position in which he was found indicated that he had been struck by a train. He was seen at about 7:40 o'clock by a resident of the neighborhood, who gave him something to eat.

WEDDING WILL BE QUIET

Marriage of Miss Mayne Estelle Drake and Mr. Robert Knightly This Morning.

Owing to the death of the uncle of the bride, the marriage this morning of Miss Mayne Estelle Drake to Mr. Robert A. Knightly will be very quiet. The ceremony will be performed in Sacred Heart Cathedral at 10:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Drake, and is well known among a large acquaintance for her graceful and charming personality. The groom is a popular young man. He is employed as a chief clerk in the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad offices.

CUPID ON THE STAGE

Mr. Joseph Hart, Scene Painter, and Miss Rose, of New York, to Marry Saturday. Cupid has invaded the camp of the Giffen Company here, and as the result of his little strategy, Mr. Joseph Hart, principal scenic artist of the company and of the Giffen-Moran studios, and Miss Grace Eleanor Jones, of New York, are to be married in Washington on Saturday.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST.

The Feast of Pentecost will be celebrated in the Temple Beth Abrahah to-morrow morning at 10:30 o'clock, with the participation of thirteen children. In the afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock the children confirmed and their parents will hold a reception for their friends in the schoolrooms of the synagogue.

HARRY M. SMITH JUMPS INTO FRAY

Candidate for Elector Against Montague and Diggs in Third District.

HAS WALKOVER, FRIENDS SAY

New Phase to Lively Contest, Made So by Talk of Rhea Matter Again.

Permitting the use of his name for the honor after much persuasion, Mr. Harry M. Smith, of this city, will be a candidate for elector on the Democratic ticket in the Third District, and will win a walk. From what could be learned last night many delegates do not like the appearance of the factional fight which has been on between Messrs. Isaac Diggs and Hill Montague, and when the name of Mr. Smith, who is popular with all elements of the party, was mentioned there were assurances of support from every side. Mr. Smith is a criminal lawyer and an orator of much popularity and distinction and is a delegate to the Roanoke Convention from the First Precinct of Monroe Ward. Though it is understood on high authority that the former Commonwealth's Attorney in no way encouraged the suggestion of his name for elector, he informed those who approached him that if he was chosen he would take pleasure in serving delegates at once joined in the movement to place him on the ticket.

May Re-enter Politics.

It is thought by some that the consent of the Commonwealth's Attorney to make a canvass of the district as a delegate, spokesman of his party this fall probably means his active re-entrance into the field of politics, though no one seems in a position to say that he will aspire to any particular office in the near future. He may possibly stand for Congress or Attorney-General some time later, but neither he nor his close friends are discussing any such matters at present. With few equals, and perhaps no superiors in the State as a criminal advocate, Mr. Smith has won fame in many forensic contests, though he is still what might be termed a young man in public life. He is a graduate of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and of the University of Virginia, and is one of Governor Swanson's appointees on the Blackboard board. It is told of Mr. Smith that when he was a student at the University of Virginia he was in a joint discussion with Captain John S. Wise at Bon Air, in Chesterfield county.

Record-Making Reply.

Captain Wise was severe in his strictures upon General Lee, and, among other things, said that "had Fitzhugh Lee been named Fitzhugh Smith, he would have been little weight in Virginia politics." When Mr. Smith came to reply he employed all the arguments, an adroit and accomplished stump speaker, though at that time he was a mere boy. Shaking his finger in Captain Wise's face, he pretended to express regret that the Smith family had been drawn unnecessarily into a political contest, but added that if this was to be the policy of the Republican party for Governor, he would not object to being named Governor.

(Mr. Smith) would emphasize the injustice and reflection from every stump in the State, and he felt sure that the famous general would not be so sufficient to rally that numerous clan solidly behind General Lee without reference to color or party creed.

This piece of bright repartee captured the crowd, and from that moment Mr. Smith was established as a public speaker who had to be reckoned with by his opponents.

The contest for elector will be settled by the Third District Convention, which meets in Roanoke at 10 o'clock on the opening day of the general convention, on June 11th.

EAGLES TO MEET

Will Decide To-Night About Sending Delegates to Seattle Convention.

Dixie Aerie, No. 335, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will hold an important meeting at its home to-night to consider the question of sending delegates to the national convention at Seattle, Wash. The retiring board of governors of the home will present its report at this time, and turn the home over to the newly-elected board of governors, who are as follows: F. W. Lewis, Dr. J. P. Roy, J. A. Harris, Misses Foulke, J. Kennedy, Joseph G. Baker, J. H. Bradley, Gus Bernier, Thomas A. Reddin and P. C. Martin.

WEDDING WILL BE QUIET

Marriage of Miss Mayne Estelle Drake and Mr. Robert Knightly This Morning.

Owing to the death of the uncle of the bride, the marriage this morning of Miss Mayne Estelle Drake to Mr. Robert A. Knightly will be very quiet. The ceremony will be performed in Sacred Heart Cathedral at 10:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Drake, and is well known among a large acquaintance for her graceful and charming personality. The groom is a popular young man. He is employed as a chief clerk in the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad offices.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

The future Mrs. Hart is a pretty young woman who has been here for some weeks watching the Giffen productions.

THE GLOBE CLOTHING COMPANY.

$10

at The Globe gives you choice from over two hundred styles of the newest ideas in Suits not to be equalled in the world at this price.

THE GLOBE

BROAD AND SEVENTH STS

EACH SHOT HIS GUEST IN SAME CRUEL MANNER

James Price Serving Life Term and James Price Awaiting Gallows for Murdering Friends at Dinner. Stain Gallant War Records With Crime.

With names identical and their crimes strikingly alike, two Confederate veterans from widely different sections of the State are paying the penalty for murder—one serving a life sentence in the penitentiary and the other appealing to Governor Swanson to save him from death on the gallows.

Edward veteran who stood in the front ranks on many battlefields in the 60's is now nearly eighty years of age, and because of his advanced years and consequent infirmities, he has been sent to the farm instead of being kept in confinement of the penitentiary.

Russell Case Similar.

The case of the other Price from Russell county, who is now pleading at the feet of Governor Swanson for mercy, is almost identical with the one set out above. Rhodes had spent the morning in hunting on Price's farm, and they dined about midday at the latter's home. They, too, had been partaking of strong drink, and during the progress of their meal they became involved in a discussion over some trivial matter. Price is said to have become greatly angered, and taking his gun, which he had placed in the corner of the room, he shot Rhodes to death as the latter sat at the table.

The Russell county man is nearly as old as his namesake from Prince Edward county, a brave Confederate soldier, and had hitherto borne a good reputation in his community. He has been granted a respite by Governor Swanson until July 10th, and unless he commutes the sentence he will be hanged on that date.

When dinner was about over, a dispute arose, and Price took a double-barreled shotgun from the rack over the dining room door and blew out Carter's brains.

At the trial the veteran, who is now spending his last days at the penitentiary farm, was defended by Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottoway. The court scenes were at times pathetic and almost dramatic. Judge

Shot Guest to Death. When dinner was about over, a dispute arose, and Price took a double-barreled shotgun from the rack over the dining room door and blew out Carter's brains.

At the trial the veteran, who is now spending his last days at the penitentiary farm, was defended by Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottoway. The court scenes were at times pathetic and almost dramatic. Judge

When dinner was about over, a dispute arose, and Price took a double-barreled shotgun from the rack over the dining room door and blew out Carter's brains.

At the trial the veteran, who is now spending his last days at the penitentiary farm, was defended by Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottoway. The court scenes were at times pathetic and almost dramatic. Judge

When dinner was about over, a dispute arose, and Price took a double-barreled shotgun from the rack over the dining room door and blew out Carter's brains.

At the trial the veteran, who is now spending his last days at the penitentiary farm, was defended by Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottoway. The court scenes were at times pathetic and almost dramatic. Judge

When dinner was about over, a dispute arose, and Price took a double-barreled shotgun from the rack over the dining room door and blew out Carter's brains.

At the trial the veteran, who is now spending his last days at the penitentiary farm, was defended by Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottoway. The court scenes were at times pathetic and almost dramatic. Judge

When dinner was about over, a dispute arose, and Price took a double-barreled shotgun from the rack over the dining room door and blew out Carter's brains.

At the trial the veteran, who is now spending his last days at the penitentiary farm, was defended by Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottoway. The court scenes were at times pathetic and almost dramatic. Judge

When dinner was about over, a dispute arose, and Price took a double-barreled shotgun from the rack over the dining room door and blew out Carter's brains.

At the trial the veteran, who is now spending his last days at the penitentiary farm, was defended by Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottoway. The court scenes were at times pathetic and almost dramatic. Judge

When dinner was about over, a dispute arose, and Price took a double-barreled shotgun from the rack over the dining room door and blew out Carter's brains.

At the trial the veteran, who is now spending his last days at the penitentiary farm, was defended by Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottoway. The court scenes were at times pathetic and almost dramatic. Judge

When dinner was about over, a dispute arose, and Price took a double-barreled shotgun from the rack over the dining room door and blew out Carter's brains.

At the trial the veteran, who is now spending his last days at the penitentiary farm, was defended by Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottoway. The court scenes were at times pathetic and almost dramatic. Judge

When dinner was about over, a dispute arose, and Price took a double-barreled shotgun from the rack over the dining room door and blew out Carter's brains.

At the trial the veteran, who is now spending his last days at the penitentiary farm, was defended by Judge William Hodges Mann,